LUCKY WINNER STRIKES ROCKET GOLD

ROCKET'S GOLD SERIES® AWARDS THIRD MILLION DOLLAR+ PRIZE

May 12, 2010 – Rocket Gaming Systems® (Rocket) is pleased to announce that its Gold Series® Class II video games have awarded a top prize of $1,034,980.83 on May 3, 2010. The lucky winner of the Gold Series top prize was playing at the Riverwind Casino in Norman, Oklahoma. This is the third time the Gold Series has awarded over $1,000,000 since November 2009.

Rocket's Gold Series games have quickly established themselves as top performers at Native American casinos across the United States. The Gold Series consists of five Class II video titles, each with a wide range of entertaining bonus rounds that provide players with a full-featured gaming experience. Best of all, Gold Series players compete for a top prize that reaches over $1,000,000. The success of the Gold Series has recently been acknowledged by ROTH Capital Partners as one of the Top Performing Leased Games in the US (ROTH Quarterly Slot Survey, April 19, 2010).

Riverwind Casino is owned and operated by the Chickasaw Nation, whose jurisdictional territory includes 7,648 square miles of south-central Oklahoma. Riverwind Casino is just one of over a dozen of Chickasaw Nation's casinos and gaming centers.

"We are thrilled to be awarding the Gold Series top prize for the third time in six months," said Ronnie W. Harris, Chief Executive Officer of Rocket. "Players love the Gold Series games, not only for the chance to win the top prize, but also for its exciting bonus rounds. We look forward to recognizing more top prize winners in the months to come," he added.

Rocket is a proud supporter of the National Indian Gaming Association (NIGA). The company has donated over $125,000 so far from revenue generated by the Gold Series in support of NIGA's mission of protecting tribal sovereignty. Over 540 Gold Series games are currently installed in over 70 Indian casinos across the country, the newest being Casino of the Sun in Tucson, Arizona.

Rocket Gaming Systems, a business enterprise of the Miami Tribe of Oklahoma Business Development Authority, provides linked interactive electronic gaming systems and player stations for central determinant gaming markets. Rocket provides games to its customers through a nationwide, high-speed communications network that lets players in multiple facilities simultaneously compete against one another for wide area progressive jackpots.
